

11i System Administration

4 days

Delegates:

Oracle 11i System Administrators, technical consultants and functional implementers.

Objectives:

By the end of the course, delegates will be able to; manage users and system security, set up and manage printers, create and implement menus, control concurrent processing, set up and manage flexfields and administer workflow & alerts.

Topics Covered:

- Oracle 11i Architecture and Directory Structures
- Create and Administer Users and Responsibilities
- Assign Responsibilities to Users
- Register a Custom Application
- Create a Data Group
- Associate Applications to Data Groups
- Create and Modify Menus
- Manage Concurrent Programs and Reports
- Administer Concurrent Managers
- Manage Profile Options
- Incorporate a Custom Program
- Audit System Resources
- Set Up and Manage Printers
- Define Resource Consumer Groups
- Use Cost Based Optimisation
- Incorporate Custom Help Files
- Administer Folders
- Manage Document Sequences
- Flexfield Overview
- Value sets
- Define Key Flexfields
- Define Descriptive Flexfields
- Oracle Workflow Overview
- Oracle Workflow Components
- View Notifications
- Respond to Notifications
- Test and Monitor Workflow Processes
- Purge Workflow Data
- Oracle Alert Overview

Requirements:

An understanding of Oracle Financials.

Follow-On Courses:

- 11i System Administration