

Solaris Introduction

3 days

Delegates:

Personnel who require a good working knowledge of the SOLARIS Operating System and the vi editor.

Objectives:

On completion of the course the delegate will have a good practical knowledge of the SOLARIS Operating System, the command structures and the editor facilities.

Topics Covered:

- History of UNIX
- File System Structure
- The Structure and use of Pathnames
- File Naming Conventions
- Logging in and out of the System
- Command Syntax
- Command Execution
- File Manipulation Commands
- The vi Editor
- Security
- User to User Communication Facilities
- Commands for Searching and Sorting
- Filter and Pipe Utilities
- Multi-tasking
- The Shell Environment
- Shell Variables
- Customisation of the Environment

Requirements:

Experience of IT and an understanding of operating systems is required.

Follow-On Courses:

- Solaris Shell Programming
- SQL